

Master Recycler Get Connected! Worksheet

- Who is your waste hauler?
 - Where does the waste hauler take the garbage?
 - Where does the waste hauler take the recycling?
 - What is accepted in your curbside recycling bin?
 - Does your Waste Hauler have a Sustainability or Education representative?
 - Is green waste/compostable material collection available through your waste hauler?
 - If so, where do they take it?
 - If not, is there a drop-off location available through your City or County or neighborhood?
- Does your City have a Sustainability office/person/website?
- Does your County have a Sustainability office/person/website?
- Are there drop-off recycling locations available in your City or County?
 - <https://slco.org/recycle/hard-to-recycle-items/>
 - What material(s) are there available drop-offs for?
 - Where do the material(s) go to be recycled?
- What is being recycled in your local schools and school district?
 - Who are their waste haulers?
 - Does your school district have a Sustainability person or office?
- What is being recycled at your work place?
 - Who is the waste hauler or waste haulers for your work place?
 - What do they accept in the Recycling bins?
 - Is there signage?
 - Will the waste hauler provide signage?
- Other – what other entities have you thought of in your local world?

Master Recycler Get Connected! Worksheet

1. Are there recycling drop-offs in places that I frequent?
 - a. Grocery stores
 - i. Example: the grocery store I go to has plastic bags/wraps recycling drop-off & cell phone recycling
 - b. Other retail stores
 - i. Example: the hardware store I go to has drop-off recycling for rechargeable batteries and a take-back program for plastic planter pots
 - c. Workplace
 - i. Example: my workplace has a large cardboard dumpster and a scrap metal recycling dumpster
 - d. Other - churches, schools, libraries, community centers, and more
 - i. Example: SLCS D has Green Fiber paper recycling bins at all the schools that can take shredded paper if the shredded paper is enclosed in a paper bag or box
2. Zero Waste Resources
 - a. Are there bring-your-own container stores?
 - i. Hello! Bulk
 - ii. Animalia
 - iii. WinCo
 - iv. Some large-chain grocery stores (Smith's)
 - v. Farmer's Markets
 - vi. Others – what have you found?
 - b. Share programs
 - i. Buy Nothing Project
 - ii. Next Door
 - iii. Others – what have you found?
3. Community Connection
 - a. Master Recycler!
 - b. Newsletters
 - i. SLGreen
 - ii. Utah Recycling Alliance
 - iii. Others – what have you found?
 - c. Non Profits
 - i. Utah Recycling Alliance
 - ii. REDO – Recycling Education Development Organization
 - iii. Others – what have you found?
 - d. Nature/Conservancy organizations
 - i. Tracy Aviary
 - ii. Jordan River Foundation
 - iii. Others – what have you found?